Mennonite Marriage Encounter weekend is Oct 17-19. Escape the hassles of the world and focus your attention on each other on a Marriage Encounter weekend. The stresses of life can cause a marriage to become "dry and wilted". A Marriage Encounter weekend minimizes the distraction of daily living and gives couples the space, time and energy to focus on each other and nourish their relationship and an understanding of how God fits into their daily lives. Contact Peter & Rose Dick at 757-4705 to register for this exciting weekend and check the website www.marriageencounter.org for more information.

Friesen Family Band in concert at River East Mennonite Brethren Church, 755 McLeod Ave, Oct. 24, 7:30 pm; admission by donation. FFB is a six-member family ensemble presenting original Christian folk-roots music for all ages. Info: www.friesenfamilyband.com.
