

Congratulations

to Jane & Paul as they open their new business.....

New Open Nov. 5, 2008

Sushi Place
Take out & Catering

Our new menu:
Beef Sushi, Kimchi Sushi
Korean Sushi,
& Shrimp, Yam Tempura

Visit 1799 Portage Ave.
(Inside Anirang Oriental mart)

Phone: 832-9910

Jane + Paul open a business

Community Happenings... October 26/08

Mennonite Collegiate Institute Soup & Pie Dinner/Concert: Oct 27 @ 5:00 p.m. and "Love is a Raincoat": An MCI community drama written by Ellie Reimer. Nov 14 & 15 @ 7:30 p.m. in Buhler Hall. Tickets: $15/adults, $10/students. Call 327-5891 to reserve. *

Donwood Manor Foundation's "All You Can Eat" Soup & Pie Fundraiser Oct 31 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. 165 Donwood Drive (in the auditorium) $7.00 per person - at the door.

Two Powerful Exhibitions open Nov 7 at 7:30PM at the MHC Gallery, 600 Shaftesbury Blvd. Standing: A Journey of Resilience, sponsored by MCC's Victims' Voice, features eight artists dealing with being victimized by violence. Through the Flowers, by Edith Krause and based on Barga family letters, reflects the experiences of Mennonites who did not escape Stalinist Russia. Also, a series by Hilda Goertzen on her response to Stalinist horrors.

Canadian Mennonite University (CMU) www.cmu.ca for more information

Looking for new music for worship? Come to New Songs for Worship III at CMU, Nov. 1, 9:15 AM to 12:30 PM. Workshop leader: Christine Longhurst. Cost: $35.

Church & ethnicity: The Mennonite experience in Paraguay is the title of this year's Friesen Lectures, Nov. 4-5 at CMU. Lecturer: Alfred Neufeld, Dean of the School of Theology of the Protestant University of Paraguay.

Employment Opportunities

The Canadian Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches is searching for an Accounting Clerk. This is a full-time position. Priority consideration will be given to candidates who are committed Christ followers attending an MB church and who possess strong financial and computer skills, experience in payroll, and the ability to communicate well orally and in writing. For more information contact John Wiebe, Chief Financial Officer by calling 669-6575 or e-mailing jwiebe@mbconf.ca, or forward your resume to the conference office at 1310 Taylor Avenue, Winnipeg MB R3M 3Z6. *

* More info on the Church Bulletin Board